Yorkshire Archæological Society.

LIBRARY RULES.

1. The Library shall be open for the use of Members daily, with the exception of Sundays, Christmas Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Whit Monday, and the first Monday in August, and on Wednesdays, when it shall be closed at noon.

2. Every Member of the Society whose annual subscription shall not be in arrear for more than three months, may borrow out of the Library any number of printed volumes not exceeding four, and may exchange any of the borrowed volumes for others as often as he pleases ; but he must not have more than four in his possession at the same time.

3. Members may take books out of the Library personally, or they may have them sent to their addresses on payment of carriage, on making written application to the Librarian. In either event, the press mark, title of the book borrowed, the borrower's name and address, and the date when the book is taken out, must be entered in the Library Delivery Book, in the first case by the borrower personally, in the presence of the Librarian, or someone deputed on his behalf ; and in the second case by the Librarian or his deputy. The date when the book is returned must also be entered in the Library Delivery Book.

4. No book borrowed out of the Library shall be retained for a longer period than one month, if the same be applied for in the meantime by any other member ; nor in any case for a longer period than three months.

5. Every Member who shall borrow any book out of the Library shall be responsible for its return (carriage paid) in safety and in good condition ; and in case of loss or damage he shall replace the work, or make the damage good.

6. Manuscripts may be consulted in the Library on making arrangements with the Librarian. Extracts from the manuscripts are allowed to be made freely ; but in the case of a transcript being desired of a whole manuscript, the consent of the Council must be obtained. No manuscript shall be lent out of the Library except upon a resolution of the Council, and for a period to be fixed by such resolution.

7. The Library Committee shall prepare from time to time a list of such works as shall not be lent out of the Library on account of their rarity, value, or peculiar liability to damage, or on account of their being works of reference often needed by Members using the Library; and a copy of such list shall be kept in the Library.

8. No book shall be lent out to any person not being a member of the Society without a special resolution of the Council.

Regulation for the Use of MSS.

A general search among the MSS. can only be made in the presence of a Member of the Library Committee, but a single MS., or a number not exceeding three, may be consulted by arrangement with the Hon. Librarian; but in this case each MS. must be taken out and replaced by a Member of the Library Committee, who shall hand it to the Housekeeper. The Housekeeper shall keep each MS. locked up, and shall produce it to the searcher when required, and receive it back from him at the completion of his search, again placing it under lock and key until it can be replaced in its proper position with the other MSS. by the Member of the Library Committee.

NOTICE.

For the convenience of Members, it may be stated that the whole of the books, forming the Brooke Bequest (marked BB in the Catalogue), and the Calendars of the State Papers, are included in the list of works not allowed to be taken out of the Library.
